IV. Presentation – Leadership Advantage – Seton Hall University
Services Offered Concerning a District’s Superintendent Search
(Attachment IV)

Dr. Richard Marasco from the consulting firm, Leadership Advantage, gave a presentation outlining Leadership Advantage’s superintendent search process. Dr. Marasco stated that his firm would gain an understanding of the community and the district, perform workshops for community stakeholders, issue a stakeholder’s report, and perform preliminary interviews with the applicants. Mr. Marasco discussed with the Board Leadership Advantage’s ability to recruit applicants and therefore, elevate the pool of candidates. Moreover, Dr. Marasco stated that the firm had completed the most searches for any privately operated superintendent search firm. A brief Board question and answer period followed Mr. Marasco’s presentation, which included the following topics: salary cap implications, Leadership Advantage’s recruiting process, and time frame of the search process.
