V. Board Report - Goal Setting Session Presented by Dr. Gail S. Verona

Items Discussed

The purpose of this special meeting was to develop 2015-2016 Bradley Beach Board of Education district goals. Dr. Verona began the discussion going over what the Board and public were most proud of. After discussing several accomplishments, Dr. Verona steered the discussion towards items that are in progress throughout the district and those items that need more attention. After discussing what the Board wanted to focus on for the upcoming school year, the district goals were established.

The goals developed were as follows:

1. To measurably improve student achievement
2. To evaluate, document, and enhance our technology plan
3. To create a consistent and effective home-school partnership
4. To develop and refine our character education program
5. To strengthen and foster community relationships and partnerships
