NOTES

Student Programs – mentioned above all take place at school, compliments of the PTA.

Crazy Dress Down – date is changed to Feb. 9th from April 1st. $1 donation is asked.

Winter Uniforms – the school sweater is a requirement to be worn for all boys, grades 1-8. It is a requirement for girls in grades 5-8.

If students wear boots to school due to inclement weather, their school shoes are to accompany them as well for wear during the day while in school.

Pre School Play and Pray – A one hour play session for students and parents considering enrolling in our Pre School Program. Reservation may be made through the business office.

Information Sessions – are held weekly for prospective families for all grade levels. Please let your friends, neighbors, and family members know. They may call the business office to schedule an appointment.

If you refer a family and they register to attend St. James School, you will receive your re-registration fee back (for one child).

Re-registration Packet – Please return them as soon as possible. Acceptances of new registrants have begun. Please reserve your student’s seat for September 2011.

Financial Assistance – Be sure to submit applications due March 15, 2011.
