

Freedom's Feat

<http://themonmouthjournal.com/freedons-feat-p2509-73.htm>

As you know, our Troops have been in Iraq and Afghanistan; they did something for us, now it's our turn to do something for them.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!

We have sent out 2-45 inch wooden trees abroad with gorgeous cards, ornaments, gifts & SOCKS !

One was shipped to an SJS alumni, Daniel Modlin, serving in the military in Afghanistan and the other was sent with the gracious help of the Cugliari-Joseph Family.

Thanks again!

God Bless You all!

Merry Christmas!

Jonathan & Bella Abadir

Freedom's Feat

Jonathan, 10, and Gabriella (Bella) Abadir, 7, of Freehold, who attend St. James School in Red Bank, and whose grandparents live in Lincroft, have asked fellow Boy and Girl Scouts and fellow St. James students to join them in donating socks inscribed with Thanks for our Freedom "Freedom's Feat," making handmade ornaments, gifts (at Home Depot) and cards which we will ship out to the troops. The items will be sent to an alumni of St. James School serving in the Army. For more information please call 848-459-2724.
