

Come one, come all to a fine comedy performance by the Saint James Drama Club!

Saint James Drama Club presents their spring musical show

GUESS WHAT I DID LAST SUMMER

Friday, April 15 at 7:00pm
Saturday April 16 at 7:30pm

Tickets are $8.00 (students) $10.00 (adults).

It's a mess, what a mess, everybody's under stress! And still they come to summer camp! Those goofy dudes from Camp John Smith take refuge in an exclusive resort for girls, and, before they're through, both places are tottering on the edge of disaster. Totally! Runaways, spoiled campers, poison ivy, confused health inspectors and even a moth-eaten buffalo mix in with the madcap action. Since both camps are deemed "unfit for teenage habitation," what's to be done?

We will showcase over 30 students from grades 6th through 8th, including singers, dancers, actors, and stage crew all involved. They have worked hard for the past several weeks and are excited and ready for the show's opening April 15. Under the musical and technical direction of Mrs. Barbara Oakerson, Mrs. Fran Byrne, and Mrs. Susan Signoriello, come and join us for a great evening of entertainment and see the talent we have to offer!

Get ready to laugh, is the consensus of everyone who's involved with the show.
